GraphPlan

GraphPlan is designed for the professional on the go — you get high-quality graphics, plus spreadsheet and database capabilities, all rolled into one. GraphPlan gives you presentation quality charts on paper or transparencies, quickly and easily, at an affordable price. You get exceptional graphics and quality management reports at the same time.

And GraphPlan is easy to learn and to use — you get results quickly using this single-stroke, menu-driven program. Yet GraphPlan has the power and flexibility to let you design more sophisticated graphics and models as your business needs grow. A single change to your spreadsheet results in instantaneous updates to your graph.

GraphPlan gives you scattergram, pie, bar, or line charts. You can have multiple graphs in a chart, stack them vertically or horizontally, and combine different types of graphs on one sheet. Pie charts can be exploded, displayed in different shades, or sorted by pie segment. The labels, legends, and chart numbers are automatic for all your charts — unless you want to make your own selection.

Part of GraphPlan is a powerful spreadsheet package with modeling capability, a report generator, and ranking and sorting capabilities, and integrates with MicroPlan, a financial modeler. GraphPlan makes extensive use of the HP 150's touch capability.

You can have presentation quality charts on your screen or plotter with GraphPlan.

Pies with up to eight segments can be exploded. GraphPlan is completely menu-driven with built-in HELP functions.
