

THUNDER 186 SCHEMATIC REQUEST FORM

LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS reserves the right to refuse release of schematics for the THUNDER 186 CPU board to any competitor or potential competitor. The release of schematics is subject to the following terms:

Schematics provided by LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS may not be reproduced in any form for any reason. This specifically prohibits photocopying, translating into machine readable format, redrawing or any other reproduction method.

The undersigned requestor agrees that the schematics will be safeguarded against disclosure to or use by persons not authorized by LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS.

The undersigned requestor recognizes that the schematics for the THUNDER 186 CPU are proprietary to LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS and unauthorized disclosure or use of the schematics may result in financial damages far exceeding the purchase price of the THUNDER 186 CPU board.

Schematics are provided for maintenance of the THUNDER 186 CPU only and not for any other purpose.

The undersigned requestor agrees that the location of the provided schematics shall be disclosed to LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS upon request by LOMAS DATA PRODUCTS.

In order to receive the requested schematics the following questions must all be answered. Failure to answer all questions will result in denial of the request for schematics.

Was the THUNDER 186 purchased for use by a company? yes__ no__
If yes, does your company manufacture electronic equipment of any type? yes__ no__
If yes, please specify products manufactured.

For what purpose are the schematics required?

I, the requestor, certify that I have read and agree to the above conditions for release of schematics. I also certify that I have answered the above questions truthfully.
